

On behalf of my family and the peace that we now enjoy in our home without the constant intrusion of unwanted phone solicitations, I would ask that you allow Wisconsin to keep its current regulations regarding no-call policies. Should we want to make contact with institutions for business purposes, we will do so on our own accord, with those businesses with which we seek to develop a relationship. Thank you for your consideration on this important issue.